Chapter 1 by Totally Olive

There he was, standing there grinning over what he just did

Chapter 2 by Oliver Cook

There was so much blood..almost too much for him, but it would never be too much for him..not till he got what he wanted most..a heart.

Chapter 3 by Dove Moon

He plunged his hand into the chest on the body in front of him, pushing past the rib cage to the heart; the bloody organ he desired the most.

Chapter 4 by Dove Moon

The way it still thumped as if trying to bring the victim back to life was appalling, but not as appalling as the thought that maybe this man wasn't so dead after all.
